

Master in Urban Analysis and Management

The initiative, financed by the Directorate General for Development Cooperation (DGCS) of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, offers training in the field of territorial zoning to Afghan personnel, reserving places for fourteen candidates selected by the University of Herat in the 2012 edition of the Master in Urban Analysis and Management offered by the University of Florence. The initiative is the result of the positive experience acquired last year during the intensive training course run within the pilot cooperation project 'Increasing know-how and improving territorial zoning in Herat (Afghanistan)'.
