

MYANMAR HERITAGE IN TRANSFORMATION. GEOGRAPHICAL AND CULTURAL PERSPECTIVES OPEN SEMINAR

June 18, 2018

Palazzo Marucelli-Fenzi, Aula Parva (First floor), via San Gallo, 10
h. 16,00 – 18,00

Interventions:

- ANDREA ZORZI, Director, Department of Excellence of History, Archaeology, Geography, Fine and Performing Arts
- MIRELLA LODA, University of Florence, SAGAS: International cooperation between Florence and Mandalay University
- MATTEO PUTTILLI, University of Florence, SAGAS: The Erasmus+ program
- NYO NYO, University of Mandalay, Department of Geography: Maintaining methods for urban heritage buildings: the case of religious buildings in Mandalay
- THIDAR HTWE WIN, University of Mandalay, Department of Anthropology: Toddy Tapping, a traditional job facing extinction: the case of Shwe Hlaing Village
- AUNG MON, University of Mandalay, Department of Anthropology: Prehistoric Evidences in Halin Area

After the seminar, participants are invited to:

MINGALABAR HAPPY HOUR

CROSS-CULTURAL EXCHANGES BETWEEN ITALY AND MYANMAR

Sit’N’Breakfast, Via S. Gallo, 21/R